

Management and utilization of natural heritage in urban forest

Key information

PROJECT TITLE: Management and Utilization of Urban Forests as Natural Heritage in Danube Cities

PROJECT ACRONYM: URBforDAN

TOTAL PROJECT VALUE: 2.788.566,61 €

NO. OF PARTNERS: 1 LP, 11 PP, 4 ASP

PROJECT DURATION: June 2018 – November 2020

PARTNER CITY & COUNTRY

1. City of Ljubljana, Slovenia
2. Municipality of Budapest, Hungary
3. City of Cluj - Napoca, Romania
4. City of Vienna, Austria
5. City of Zagreb, Croatia
6. City of Belgrade, Serbia
7. City of Ivano Frankivsk, Ukraine

URBforDAN main objectives

- Improved management of Urban and Peri-urban Forests (UPF) in 7 Danube cities
- Inclusion of stakeholders in decision making processes
- Preserving and promoting Natural Heritage in Danube cities

Results

- Established URBforDAN Danube Network
- Integrated Multi-use Management Plans for 7 cities
- Improved conditions for visitors of UPF in 7 cities (presentation, recreation, education, etc.)
- Developed UPF Management Models & Tools
- UPF Participatory Planning & Management Guidelines

URBforDAN Project Concept

WP 1 - PROJECT MANAGEMENT

WP 3 - PARTICIPATORY APPROACH

Improved communication between UPF Owners, Managers and Users

WP 4 - UPF MANAGEMENT PLANS

Participatory development of 7 Integrated Multi-use Management Plans (IMMP)

WP 5 - UTILIZATION OF ECOSYSTEM SERVICES (ES) IN UPF

Actions for promotion of multipurpose use of UPF

WP 2 - COMMUNICATION & DISSEMINATION